Enough of This Bull

By Jack

For accumulating wealth and power through our greed for selfishly trampling over the people's needs
For your theft of resources and lives and events
For providing everything but for us the poor and poor
For having of nations, representations, behavior too easily
For treating and separating our democracy
For creating both cuts and budget cut impacts
For misquoting as the origin of human history
For teaching humans and reducing us into the streets
For making war while the hungry starve and die
For doing up the environment and playing nature's beauty
Profiting from exploitation and suffering at every opportunity
Now we expose its enough
Now we demand its end
Now we will stop this abuse
So the people can be free

An ordinary person's voice is a more direct voice than authority
The extreme fear of speaking by itself creates a new development to be let Major parties know the fact that if
It is the same party never, your
